Founded in 1976, the Lost Art Lacers of North Jersey seek to preserve, encourage and promote the making of handmade lace. Our members work in all the major forms of lacemaking.

Bobbin Lace

Knitting

Tatting

Crochet

Needle Lace

Drawn & Pulled Thread Work

Members live in the tri-state area. Meetings are held in Branchville, September through May, on the fourth Saturday of the month. Workshops are held during the months of June, July and August.

Our demonstrations are in great demand. We have been seen at:

- Millbrook Village in the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area
- Van Campen Inn located in the Delaware Water Gap National Recreation Area
- DAR Van Bunschooten Museum, Wantage, NJ
- Waterloo Village, Byram NJ
- Grey Towers, Milford PA
- The New Jersey State Fair/Sussex County Farm and Horse Show

The group offers its members the following:

- Access to an extensive library of books and videos on lacemaking
- Newsletters 8 times a year
- Advance information of Lace Days
- Workshops with professional instructors
- The opportunity to share information and knowledge with other lacemakers.

Yearly dues are $15.00. Please make checks payable to The Lost Art Lacers and mail it with the registration form to Sheryl Dekmar, 719 New Brunswick Road, Phillipsburg, NJ, 08865. For further information, please contact Sheryl Dekmar at (973)222-0731 (sldekmar@yahoo.com) or Clara Eastby at (973)875-6922 (Claraeast22@centurylink.net)
